Dear Mr. Trombetta,

I wanted to thank you for spearheading all of the volunteer labor arrangements for "The Gala Benefit for the Children of Heroes" on November 21 and 22, 2004 at the Las Vegas Hilton Hotel. The event went very well thanks to you, your staff, Dennis Brook, Devan Kloos and all of the able staff that volunteered to handle Encore Productions' equipment for the Las Vegas Hilton production. As with any event coming in, there were additional requests and last minute changes placed with Devan Kloos and he could not have been more helpful or nicer nor contributed more effort to get what was needed for the show. Often it was not even in his area of responsibility but he never once acted like we were asking too much. He was a pro from beginning to end and in every way lived up to the quality reputation of IATSE. Our successes for both performances were largely because of Devan's homework and follow through. I can't thank you, and all of the volunteer staff that came out for this event, enough for their contributions. The IATSE volunteers were as follows: Devan Kloos, Ray Cox, Richard Walsh, Lenny Perry, Ray Martinez, Dave Huskinson, Baron Bujol, Keith Hubbell, Paul Haines, Marco Llonas, Julie Prince, Catherine Wokash, Trevar Hoberecht, Dave Verbeck, John Stone, Mike Ortloff, Larry Corbo, Michael Leckrone, Cliff Paschall, Chad Burns, Mark Walsh, and Jeff Baer.

I have recently resigned my position as the Chief Operating Officer for The Gala but as their event planner I wanted to personally thank you, Dennis and Devan for all of your efforts. You made my job so much easier and I can't thank you enough for coming out for the benefit of the children of our heroes, and the men and women of the Special Operations Forces. This certainly makes you and your staff heroes as well. As Winston Churchill once said, "We make a living by what we get. We make a life by what we give."

Thank you very much for your generous gift.

Sincerely,

Patti Wood, President
